

DAD UP AND READ

SUPERHERO STATUS IN 15 MIN!

CAPE & TIGHTS NOT REQUIRED.

It's never too late to create the childhood connection you've always wanted. Reading with your kids for 15 minutes a day offers an easy, real connection.

Lincoln City Libraries is here to help. Library cards are free, books don't cost a thing to check out and we've even got special activities for dads and kids.

"DADS DO" EVENTS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD
10:30AM-NOON

We invite dads and their kids to come play, create, learn and explore all the library has to offer using our building and makerspace kits. We'll have snacks, special guest dads and a scavenger hunt for a chance to win a gift card.

Bennett Martin Public Library
136 S. 14th Street

Anderson Branch
3635 Touzalin Avenue

Gere Branch
2400 S. 56th Street

BREAKFAST WITH DAD

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10TH
10:30AM-NOON

Enjoy breakfast with your child, then join the fun in the library. There will be stories, crafts, and a free drawing pad and crayons for each child. Look for special guest dads, and complete a scavenger hunt for a chance to win a gift card.

Walt Branch
(Cereal Bar)
6701 S. 14th Street

Eiseley Branch
(The Waffleman)
1530 Superior Street

