Faith Community Academic Excellence

November 15, 2017 St. Albert the Great

Dear Parents,

When two ladies asked a 9-year-old boy a typical question they were surprised by his response. “What do you want to be when you grow up? A carpenter? A soldier? A doctor? I know, you would like to be a priest so you could say Mass and hear confessions and preach! That’s it, isn’t it?”

To all of these, the boy answered, “No. I don’t want to be anything. I just want to die and go to Heaven.” Francisco Marto, one of the three visionaries of Fatima, knew that he was going home (to heaven) soon and desired it with all his heart. He had a strong spirit of love and sacrifice. When he was very ill and confined to bed, Lucia asked him if he was suffering greatly. He replied, “Yes, I am. I suffer it all for the love of Our Lord and Our Lady. I want to suffer more and I can’t.”

Francisco had made his first Confession in the year of the apparitions, but failed to pass the catechism test so he had to wait to receive Holy Communion. This pained him greatly. On his death bed he said to his Father, “Before I die, I want to receive Our Lord.” When his father left to get a priest he called for Lucia to come and asked her to tell him if she ever saw him commit any sins. She told him that sometimes he disobeyed his mother by hiding or sneaking away when she wanted him to stay at home. He asked Jacinta the same question and she told him that he stole 10 cents and helped throw stones at the boys from Boleiros before Our Lady appeared. He replied, “I have confessed those already, but I will confess them again... even if I were not to die, I wouldn’t do it again. I’m sorry. My Jesus, forgive us... Lucia, you too ask Our Lord to forgive me my sins.”

The priest arrived that night to hear his confession and came the next morning with Communion. He received Jesus into his heart and was enveloped in the presence of God. He offered himself again as a victim of love, consolation and reparation to Jesus and Mary. This was to be his first and last Communion as the next day he went to be with Jesus and Mary in Heaven with an angelic smile on his lips.

How strong is our desire for heaven and to receive Jesus in the Eucharist? If it were stronger, how would it affect our daily choices? Can you offer three or more sacrifices today for the intention of increasing your desire for heaven and Jesus? Let us pray for one another to be fervent examples to our children of Love of God.

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,
Sister Mary Faustina, CK
